Claire and Jerik's Magic Adventure

Claire and Jerik were playing a game of           Type of Game          . But then something totally           Adjective           happened! They were both transported into the game! " Look it's a magical           Noun          !" proclaimed Jerik as he pointed at the           Same Noun          . " This is totally           Adjective          ," Claire said. Then the           Same Noun           casted a magical           Noun           that turned Jerik into a           Noun          , and Claire into a           Noun          . The           Same Noun           told them that they had to defeat a mystical           Noun           called           Person in Room           to escape this fantasy world in time for their wedding. They both           Verb - Past Tense           to the evil lair of the           Last Noun           and prepared for           Noun          . Jerik had a           Adjective                     Noun          . And Claire had a Giant           Noun          . They defeated the           Last Noun           easily with these           Noun - Plural           and were transported back to the the real           Noun          .
