

A day at the Library

1. Noun
2. Verb - Present Ends In Ing

A day at the Library

It was a bright sunny day.

Me and my friends were headed to the Noun.

When we got there, no one was there but the door was open.

We headed inside to see if we could find someone, and it was so strange...the books were off the shelves and .

Because they didnt see us, they continued Verb - Present ends in ING and jumping and moving around.
