Stop praying

Once upon a time, there was a blank Noun. It was Adjective and Adjective. Then God said "let there be Noun" and there was. He created the Noun (like the elm Noun that can have up to 6 million Noun - Plural on it) and the Noun - Plural (like the caterpillar that has 228 separate and distinct Noun in its head). He even Verb - Past Tense people to enjoy this new Noun. Then He Verb - Past Tense Noun. Wheezes, snorts, silent laughter, all different kinds, just because He could. Sometimes we Verb - Base Form how Adjective He is. We approach Him Adverb as though He isn't any different from our friends at school. God is Adjective. God is Adjective. God is Adjective. God is Adjective and Adjective. Stop talking AT God. Remember who He is before Verb - Present ends in ING Him in prayer.
