Prep Skills Mad Lib

Here at DC Prep, we value social/emotional growth just as much as Noun - Plural . This year, we are focusing on four key social skills, called Proper Noun Skills, which will help your Preppie grow into an Adjective , Adjective and Adjective friend. The first skill, be a good Noun , focuses on being respectful to your Noun - Plural and Noun - Plural . This includes taking turns, Verb - Present ends in ING , Verb - Present ends in ING cooperatively with other children, and displaying empathy. The second skill, use your words, focuses on finding appropriate ways to Verb - Base Form Noun - Plural . This includes using adults to help problem-solve, describing and expressing Noun - Plural properly, use negotiation to Verb - Base Form Noun - Plural , and standing up for Noun - Plural . Do your best focuses on being Adjective , Adjective , Verb - Present ends in ING more than once, and following through on plans. Finally, be your best includes following the rules, respect and care for the Noun , respond positively to directions from the Noun , and adjust to new Noun - Plural .
