Holy Cow

As I walked through the _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____, I heard an odd sound in the distance. Geez, I was scared. It was like a terribly lonesome animal had slowly walked off into the nothingness of the overgrown field. I couldn't see anything. My friends think I'm crazy for going on these solitary night walks, but I enjoy them. Anyway, I cautiously moved toward the distressed sound. As I reached a clearning, there was an isolated cow mooing at the moon. While the cow made his lowly sound, a shooting star scorched across the sky. I then saw a faint halo appear over the cow's head. "Holy cow," I thought, "I just saw a truly holy cow."
