The girl who loved to swim...

Once upon a time lived a girl, who loved to Verb. She went Verb - Present Tense every day. She Verb - Past Tense whenever she could. One day, she woke up with Noun - Plural! From that day on, she never had to worry what her Noun looked like, or Verb - Present Tense make up on, or even what she'll wear for the Noun! One day she ran into a Noun, fell in Noun. And lived Adverb ever after! The end.
