Pre-Game Mad Libs

Toronto FC returns to action this Day of the Week at MLS Stadium, as they take on the MLS Opponent. Toronto will look to pick up three points, and reverse their fortunes after a tough loss against the Another MLS Team in their previous MLS match. MLS Opponent sit above Toronto FC in the standings, and will be confident that they can get the result against the Reds.

Toronto FC head coach Head Coach Name was disappointed following the loss against Another MLS Team a week ago. Head Coach Name told media after the match he was Negative Emotion with his team's performance, particular in the Field Position.

TFC player was the topic of Head Coach Name criticism as well. Head Coach Name said he was upset with TFC player passing and has demanded that TFC player steps up his play.

Meanwhile, MLS Opponent head coach Head Coach Name was confident in his side, telling reporters he expected a 5-0 victory against Toronto FC. MLS Opponent midfielder MLS player said, "It's going to be a tough game but Toronto is a beatable team and we'll be out there looking for the win."

Toronto FC are set to kick off at 4:00 p.m., in front of a crowd of Disappointing Crowd Figure.
