

Jackknife Goes to the Zoo

1. Noun
2. Drink
3. Verb - Base Form
4. Adverb
5. Adjective
6. Noun
7. Drink
8. Animals
9. Animals
10. Animals
11. Noun - Plural
12. Animals
13. Body Part
14. Noun

Jackknife Goes to the Zoo

Jackknife pulls a keg out from behind a Noun in a wooded area. He grabs the tap and pours Drink into his mouth. He burps loudly and looks down to see a baby bear at his feet. The cuteness of the cub causes him to Verb - Base Form . Suddenly a mother bear appears behind Jackknife and growls Adverb . The Adjective bear stand on it's hind legs. Without hesitation, the bear hits Jackknife with its paw, hurdling him through the air. Bruised and bloodied Jackknife throws a [Noun] at the bear and runs into an authorized personnel only security area. He blindly runs over zoo surveillance controls, knocking over [Drink] and electrocuting nearby security guards. The fried remains of a guard fall on a button, releasing all the animals from their cages. On security screens we see [Animals] and [Animals] trampling guests. [Animals] quickly eat their corpses. The mother bear returns and looms over a little girl. Just as the bear is about to eat the girl, Jailbot bursts out from inside the Bear, spewing blood everywhere. To repair the damage, Jailbot grabs a nearby bunch of [Noun - Plural] and hands them to the girl. Jailbot flies over to Jackknife where he is fighting [Animals] in their cage. Jailbot grabs Jackknives by the [body Body part] and flies him off to Superjail. As they leave we see a giant [Noun] where the zoo used to be.