Our Journey

Every year, my family goes on this _____ Adjective camping trip to the _____ Adjective Rocky Mountains.

This year was extra _____ Adjective because I just turned _____ Number so I was _____ Verb - Past Participle to go white-water rafting! I always _____ Verb - Past Tense my sisters do it every year and I was _____ Adjective that I could do it with them. I know the rapids moved _____ Adverb and if you _____ Verb - Past Tense into the water, you were in for a _____ Noun dip. Even during the summer the water was under 40 degrees Ferenheit!

Just thinking about _____ Verb - Present Tense into the water _____ Verb - Past Tense chills up my back. My dad was too _____ Adjective to get a guide so we were in this _____ Noun alone. The first 4 minutes was the most _____ Adjective part of the whole thing! We were _____ Verb - Past Participle along the whole time and we were

_____ Verb - Present Tense in _____ Adjective circles. I couldn't make up my mind if I was _____ Verb - Past Participle or _____ Verb - Past Participle because I couldn't hold in my laughter and _____ Adjective screams.

We finally calmed down but our journey wasn't over yet. We still had another _____ Adjective hour to go! The _____ Adjective water splashed up onto me and my goosebumps were the size of _____ Noun - Plural! After about 30 minutes we got to stop at a _____ Adjective spot and they allowed you to jump into the water. Jump into that _____ Noun water? No way! After a while we moved along and then came the _____ Adjective finale! When you look at pictures, the drop didn't feel that _____ Adjective, but it felt like we were 30 feet high!

My screams were so _____ Adjective that I'm pretty sure I caused some people to lose their hearing. I have never experienced something so _____ Adjective and I couldn't wait to do it again!
