Carl's Birthday

On one fine day, Carl Gressler the IV was Verb - Past Participle . His parents and older sister were so Verb - Past Participle to bring him home. Little did they know they were about to have quite a Noun .
Carl was such a Adjective toddler. He loved to Verb and Verb with his Proper Noun . Carl was very Adjective about his clothes and he hated when you Verb - Past Tense up his bed. Carl didn't care much for the Noun - Plural and made his own up as he went along.
When Carl got his the world became a different place. Even today if you see his Adjective you better watch out. Carl Adjective the Adjective but if they happen to lose a game you should just take cover. Carl is Adjective when he is getting his way and being by his fiancee.
