The hit movie "Home _____" about a _____ thwarting burglars with imaginative mayhem, wasn't total fantasy. Just ask the _____ who tried to _____ in while _____ Ryan Hendrickson was home alone.

Ryan was watching television _____ night when he heard a noise that sounded like a window screen being cut.

"I ran to the _____ and grabbed a bat," Ryan said Thursday. "I _____...into the _____ room, where I saw him _____ the window with a _____. He put his left hand in first and I was waiting for his right hand to come in...and I took the _____ bat and I hit him as hard as I could."

The man ran. Ryan called 911.

Police, while _____ Ryan to call _____ first next time, did enjoy the fact that the kid got in the first _____ against a bad guy.
