The Great Hunger

| 1. | Proper Noun |
|-----|-------------------|
| 2. | Pronoun |
| 3. | Abstract Noun |
| 4. | Noun |
| 5. | Number |
| 6. | Collective Noun |
| 7. | Same Proper Noun |
| 8. | Same Proper Noun |
| 9. | Verb - Past Tense |
| 10. | Concrete Noun |
| 11. | Interjection |
| 12. | Noun - Plural |
| 13. | Interjection |
| 14. | Possessive Noun |
| 15. | Noun |
| 16. | Adverb |
| 17. | Same Proper Noun |
| 18. | Adjective |
| 19. | |
| | Compound Noun |
| 21. | |
| | * |

The Great Hunger

| One day, got very hungry. As he was looking for something to eat, he found a g | iant taco |
|---|----------------|
| shell in his cabinet. This gave a a Abstract Noun for a taco. He walked over to | his |
| refrigerator, he slipped on an ice cube. As he fell backwards, he dropped his taco shell. The shell his | the |
| Noun and broke into Number Collective Noun . Same Proper Noun started | d crying and |
| tried to think of a solution to his problem. Right away he remembered that his dad told him about th | e crazy glue |
| they had in the garage. So Same Proper Noun Verb - Past Tense out to the Concrete Noun | and |
| brought the glue back into the kitchen. He found all the and | started to |
| glue them back together one by one. He was about through when a drop of glue | got on |
| Possessive Noun fingers. He tried to wipe it off with his other hand, but they just stuck together | r. He had no |
| idea what to do. Finally, after an of crying and trying to pull apart his fingers, his da | d comes |
| home, his dad knows just how to fix the problem. He has r | un his fingers |
| under Majective water until they come apart. Bob is still hungry, Conjunction he asks | his dad to |
| make something to eat. His dad then asks him, "how about Compound Noun ?" Same Proper N | oun just |
| says, "actually, I think I'll just go with cereal". | |

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.