How to Impress Your Teacher

Making a _____ impression on your teacher is very _____. If your teacher thinks you are a _____, that you care about the class, and are _____ your _____, she will be more likely to _____ you when you are _____. Here are some suggestions for how to impress your teacher. First of all, make sure to _____ every class, and come to class on time. It is very _____ to the teacher and other _____ if you come in late. If you have to miss class, make sure to ask another _____ what _____ or _____ you might have missed. If you don't have a _____ in the class that you can _____, you can _____ your teacher, but make sure to write a _____ email, using college-level spelling, punctuation, and _____. Above all, do not ask your teacher if you missed anything, as that implies that nothing of value might have happened

Make sure you do all the homework. Keep track of due dates and _____ turn in your _____ on time. If you don't _____ an assignment, ask _____ about it as soon as possible.

Don't wait until the last minute, because you can count on something coming up to slow you down; maybe your _____ will _____, or maybe your car will get a _____ tire. Whatever the mishap or _____ is, you will be able to deal with it much more _____ if you know that your homework is _____ done.
