My Puppy

When I was six years Adjective, my mother gave me a beautiful puppy as a gift. I named it Proper Noun because I really Verb - Past Tense Mickey Mouse Preposition or subordinating conjunction that time. First, I was so happy with my puppy that I wanted to share my broccoli and beans with it. I played with my puppy all day and at Noun I put it on my bed when everybody Verb - Past Tense sleeping. After a week I was jelous of my puppy Preposition or subordinating conjunction my oldest Noun paid more attention to it than me. One day, I took him to school inside my backpack; he was really scared when he Verb - Past Tense many children. He run out of the classroom and I run Preposition or subordinating conjunction it but it run Adverb - Comparative than i did. I said, "Interjection, Mickey come back." I looked for it everywhere in my school but I could not find Pronoun. I walked Adverb to my classroom; I was crying. I never saw my beautiful puppy again since then. I will always remember Mickey forever.
