

going out side

1. Verb - Past Tense
-

going out side

when i stated out side i took one step and trip on a hippo. i quckily punch him in the noise and took off running down the hill. there was three ninja chassing me but i took them out with my blow dart. i jump in the ocean to get away from the t-rex that wanted me to play tackle football. i was swimming around the deep blue sea when i noticed a shinny glow coming from down below.what could it be? i sprinted down below but right when i got there i notice that it was a huge fly holding a flashlight on his wings trying to get me to buy i new house. it was a nice house but i dont really like the nabors of the deep blue. my mom called me and told me what was takng so long. i forgot thats why i came out side in the first place. i leaped to the store got the milk and Verb - Past Tense home.