the trip to aiken high school

one day a group of kids 20 or so were on a field trip to the zoo with there private school. there bus driver did seam a bit crazy but they didn't think anything of it. about 40 minutes down the road they wondered why it was taking so long to just get to the zoo which was a 25 minute ride. they looked up and saw this huge school it was very different then there school. they all got out of the bus in hopes to get directions from the students or teachers. everyone they approached just looked at them like they were crazy and made no since. they moved on inside to find help. suddenly one girl stepped on something so gross, it was pink and sticky and wouldn't come of the bottom of _____Verb - Base Form_____ shoe. then one boy said he needed to use the restroom. he ran to the closest one. inside there were people staring and writing all over the walls of unthinkable words. and you cant even imagine the smell. he ran out faster then he came in. he told the other kids that this place isn't like anywhere hes ever been. they ran to the bus and finally made it to the zoo which wasn't much different then the high school.
