Dating Advice

1. Be respectful to your Noun. Use proper Noun - Plural.
2. If you don't know your date well, a double or Noun date may be more Adjective.
3. Do not get too intimate on the Ordinal number - first second third etc date.
4. Don't be afraid to be Adjective; a date doesn't have to be Noun or a Noun.
5. Dress appropriately for the activity - don't wear a prom Item of clothing to go hiking or a Item of clothing and jeans to a formal dance.
6. Verb - Base Form your date when it is over.
7. Girls, be patient if dates are slow, maybe the guys are just too Adjective or too busy " Verb -
Present ends in ING Preposition " instead of dating.
8. Guys, don't be afraid to ask Noun - Plural out - most would be Verb - Past Tense to be asked that question.
