Once Upon a Time

One upon a time, there was a Noun and Noun. One was a little bit Noun and the other was a little bit Noun. They started talking and though they were and are Number very different Noun - Plural, they got along really Adverb. They started talking for Number or more hours a night. It was getting to be pretty serious and the Noun would never admit this at the time, but she was so Verb - Past Participle. She really liked this guy but he was so far away and she questioned how it was ever going to work out. It is a really good thing that the Noun never Verb - Past Tense how Pronoun felt about the Noun. The Noun always knew she Verb - Past Tense Pronoun and Verb - Past Tense about Pronoun but it was fear that was getting in the way of what happened next. It is a year later, and wouldn't you know, it they are still together and hopefully it will end with a Adverb ever after. The end.
