The Grateful Dead

Meredith and Michael were following the Dead. They had waited on a Adjective line to get tickets for their show in Location. It was going to be a Adjective one. They got there early to hang around in the parking lot and smoke Noun and buy Noun - Plural. They Verb - Past Tense in a drum circle and helped a lost deadhead find her Adjective bus. Finally they went inside. The atmosphere was Adjective. The Dead opened with dead song and went right into a riff of dead song.

Meredith and Michael were Verb - Present ends in ING like crazy and sharing a Noun with their seat mates. The show was Adjective. Lots of Adjective songs, Adjective songs, and Adjective songs. The encore was dead song. At the end, exhausted from Verb - Present ends in ING, Meredith and Michael bought a type of food on the way out and went to sleep under the stars in a type of dwelling. They were in love with Noun and the Noun of the Dead.
