A Visit to My Grandma

One day, I went to visit my Adjective grandma. She is very Adjective, but also very Adjective. She cannot Verb - Base Form very Adverb. She also cannot Verb - Base Form very Adverb. Conjunction, one day I went to visit my grandma and she suggested that we race. She lives in a Verb - Present ends in ING home and suggested that we race from one end of the Noun to the other. I thought I would beat her with my eyes closed, but I was in for a surprise. We set off Conjunction my grandma was suddenly Preposition and Preposition me. She won Adverb! We had agreed that whoever won would get a Noun. But really my grandma really just wanted to surprise me. She had been wearing roller skates the whole time! Interjection, I did not know that my grandma could skate so well!
