So there once was a           Noun           name Bon Qui Qui with rainbow hair. She was so           Adjective           with a ratchet attitude! Nobody liked Bon Qui Qui! Nickole           Conjunction                     Pronoun           were enemies. One day           Proper Noun           got her friend Man-bear-pig to fight Bon Qui Qui and to end the spread of ratchetness. Bon Qui QUI           Verb - Present ends in ING           "why?" Nickole said, "Why you asking all them questions?" Then           Proper Noun                     Proper Noun           beats Bon Qui Qui and the world lived ratchet free! The END!!!
