Yet Another Thanksgiving Dinner

The family gathered together to celebrate Event. We always enjoy Verb - Present ends in ING and Verb - Present ends in ING together during this Adverb time of the year. One of the most popular things we enjoy doing is Verb - Present ends in ING Noun and eating lots of Noun.

We also enjoy Verb - Present ends in ING games and Verb - Present ends in ING while we wait for the Verb - Present ends in ING to cook. This is one of the only times of the year we Verb - Base Form each other. We can always plan on Verb - Base Form from at least one Adjective Noun if not more. There is always some sort of Adverb drama that is certain to Verb - Base Form us during the gathering.

One of my Adverb things that I do every year is eating the yummy Adjective pie and making sure to put a scoop of Adjective cream on top. By the time everyone is ready to leave, they are so Adjective that they always end up having to Verb - Base Form before saying Verb - Base Form.

The family starts leaving and it's Mood to see them go and at the same time it's Adjective to have the place all to yourself again. Time to Verb - Base Form the kitchen and Action to bed.

Another Adjective year to wait for our next annual Thanksgiving gathering. Good night to all and a Mood Thanksgiving!
