

A Very Scary jack-o'-lantern

1. Proper Noun 1
2. Proper Noun
3. Noun 1
4. Noun 2
5. Location
6. Noun
7. Noun
8. Noun 3
9. Noun
10. Noun
11. Noun
12. Part Of Body
13. Part Of Body
14. Location

A Very Scary jack-o'-lantern

"How do you carve a scary jack-o'-lantern?" _____ Proper Noun 1 asked Grandpa _____ Proper Noun.

"You must get a _____ Noun 1 from the yellow-eyed, snaggle-toothed _____ Noun 2,' Grandpa Repeat Last

_____ Proper Noun answered. "From the yellow-eyed, snaggle-toothed Repeat Last Noun 2 _____!" Repeat Last Proper Noun 1 gasped. "How do you do that?"

_____ Repeat Last Proper Noun ...

On a moonlit night, when the air is crisp, a black cat will stroll out of _____ Location. Follow it.

The cat steps into a cornfield and disappears. Dry leaves rustle softly in the wind. And then... Cla-ta-ta-tat! A _____ Noun dances by. Follow it.

The Repeat Last Noun stops at the edge of a pond. It dives... You hear no splash - but it is gone. Three pale _____ Noun rise out of the mist. They swirl. They sigh. They hum. Follow their song.

As they glide through the _____ Noun 3, the Repeat Last Noun melt away. An _____ Noun hoots.

_____ Noun swoop down. One of them seems to lead the way. Follow it.

In a clearing in the Repeat Last Noun 3 stands a tiny hut. Walk right in. no need to knock.

Inside the hut, you're not alone. A long-legged _____ Noun spins down from the ceiling. A huge steaming caldron stands on the hearth. And then she appears. From where? Who knows? _____ Part of Body closed,

_____ Part of Body outstretched, she holds a large orange Repeat Last Noun 1.

Now watch carefully. As she opens her eyes, do they shine yellow? As she starts to cackle, does a snaggle-tooth _____ show? If so... take the Repeat Last Noun 1 --- and run!

Outside

the hut, the black cat returns to show you the way. Follow it.

Run through the Repeat Last Noun 3 , past the pond, and across the cornfield. Run until you and the Repeat Last Noun 1 are safely Location .

"And then," Grandpa Repeat Last Proper Noun said with a wink, "you'll be scared enough to carve a very scary jack-o'lantern - just like this!"