

Breaking in

1. Adjective
2. Adjective
3. Adjective
4. Adjective
5. Adjective
6. Adjective
7. Adjective
8. Adjective
9. Adjective
10. Adjective
11. Adjective
12. Adjective
13. Adjective
14. Adjective
15. Adjective
16. Adjective
17. Adjective
18. Adjective
19. Adjective
20. Adjective

Breaking in

One day the _____ Adjective school doors did not open. The _____ Adjective students were ready for another _____ Adjective day of learning, but no matter how hard they pulled, the _____ Adjective doors would not open. Finally, Henry, the _____ Adjective boy in his level said, "let's climb in through the window." All of the other students looked up to Henry, and said "yes" without any question. All of the students except _____ Adjective Hannah. _____ Adjective Hannah did not think it was a safe idea to climb in through the window. She quietly told the others this, but they called her a "scaredy-cat" and followed Henry to the window. Henry looked up at the window with _____ Adjective legs. He didn't want the others to see, but he was scared. He turned around and smiled nicely. When he saw Hannah, she was shaking her head. Then Hannah started to sing a _____ Adjective song. Everyone was startled and turned to look at Hannah, singing in her _____ Adjective dress. She was singing about a _____ Adjective boy who fell off of a _____ Adjective roof. A lot of the kids knew this _____ Adjective story, and started to sing too. Soon all of the students were singing along with Hannah. Henry climbed up anyway, because he was very _____ Adjective. When he got to the _____ Adjective window, he saw that it was locked. He was very high up and became very scared to climb down. The _____ Adjective students had to call the firemen. The firemen pulled up in a _____ Adjective _____ Adjective fire truck. They climbed up and brought him down to the _____ Adjective ground. Once they scolded him, they told all the kids that school was _____ Adjective and that they could all go home and play.