Breaking in

1.	Adjective
2.	Adjective
3.	Adjective
4.	Adjective
5.	Adjective
6.	Adjective
7.	Adjective
8.	Adjective
9.	Adjective
10.	Adjective
11.	Adjective
12.	Adjective
13.	Adjective
14.	Adjective
15.	Adjective
16.	Adjective
17.	Adjective
18.	Adjective
19.	Adjective
20.	Adjective

Breaking in

One day the	Adjective	_ school doors	did not open.	The Adject	stude	ents were re	eady for anoth	er
Adjective	_ day of lear	ning, but no m	atter how hard	they pulled, t	he Adjecti	doo	rs would not open. Finally, H	lenry, the	Adjective	boy in his leve	el said, "let's c	limb in throu	gh the wind	low." All of th	ie other students lo	ooked up to H	lenry, and said	l "yes" without	any question.	All of the stu	idents exce	pt
Adjective	_ Hannah	Adjective	_ Hannah did n	not think it wa	s a safe idea t	o climb in	through the window. She qu	ietly told the	others this, bu	nt they called he	er a "scaredy-	cat" and follo	wed Henry	to the window	N.
Henry looked u	p at the windo	ow with	Adjective leg	gs. He didn't w	ant the others	s to see, bu	the was scare	d.
He turned arour	nd and smiled	nicely. When	he saw Hannal	h, she was sha	ıking her head	l. Then Hai	nnah started to) sing a Adject	tive song	. Everyone wa	as startled and t	urned to look	at Hannah, si	nging in he	er
Adjective	_ dress. She	was singing at	oout aAdjec	ctive boy	who fell off o	faAd	iective roo	f.
A lot of the kids	s knew this	Adjective	_ story, and sta	arted to sing to	oo. Soon all o	f the studer	nts were singi	ıg along with Han	nah. Henry cl	imbed up anyv	way, because h	e was very	Adjective	When he	e got to the Adjective	_ window, he	e saw that it w	as locked. He v	was very high	up and becan	ne very scar	red to climb down. The	Adjective	students had t	o call the firem	en. The firem	en pulled up	in a	djective Adjective	_ fire truck. T	They climbed	up and brought	him down to	the Adject	tive gre	ound. Once th	ey scolded him, the	ey told all the	kids that scho	ool wasAd	jective and	I that they cou	ıld all go h	ome and play.	