Our Best Two Years

Over the past two years, while life has been _____Adjective_____, not a lot of _____Adjective_____ events have happened. Ya didn't miss much! But we were able to witness a lot of pretty neat stuff. For instance, we were both the hospital room shortly before and after cute _____Adjective_____ Alec Bryson McHardy was born! And we _____Verb - Past Tense_____ Christmas with him and his parents that year, our first away from general family gatherings.

In 2011 we spent a lot of time with the _____Adjective_____ McHardys and our _____Adjective_____ cousins, watching movies and various tv series episodes, playing hours and hours of the _____Adverb_____ _____Adjective_____ game Monopoly and some new _____Adjective_____ favorites, Bang!, Guillotine, and Citadels.

In between these _____Adjective_____ and _____Adjective_____ movie/game nights, we worked on expanding Eric's business, which shifted from focusing on photography to cinematography, due to the _____Adjective_____ and _____Adjective_____ of Utah's bridal market, as well as Eric's abiding love of film. He also had the opportunity to work on three different film sets for various projects, the most recent of which, although embarrassing to everyone involved in the project, is due to be _____Verb - Past Tense_____ in limited theaters this holiday season.

I worked at a few jobs during the past two years, including retail at Old Navy, a short-term loan advisor, and an administrative assistant. I now teach a class of _____Adjective_____ two-year-olds at a child care facility which is located in a very _____Adjective_____ Baptist church, which happens to be even _____Adjective_____ than the Salt Lake Temple. I believe this to be one of the very _____Adjective_____ jobs I have ever had.

We have moved homes twice. The first move was from Orem to Taylorsville in May 2012, and the second was to a smaller unit in the same complex. While our new apartment is quite _____Adjective_____ and tiny, we have enjoyed learning to make the most of every square foot, and besides, our utility bills are _____Adjective_____.

We have served in various church callings over the past two years, jointly as primary teachers, activities committee members, and Larissa as a Relief Society instructor.

It seems most of our spare time is taken up by research and study for the sake of our business, but there has been time for _____Adjective_____ things such as reading, experimental food preparation most of which turned out _____Adjective_____, and pinning things on Pinterest.

In the coming year we look forward to further _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ of Eric's business, and hopefully getting to know our neighbors better to _____Verb - Base Form_____ our circle of friends. Life in Taylorsville is quite _____Adjective_____ without cousins and siblings close by. We also both hope that we will discover some impetus or means to move out of Utah.. to where it is not any more certain. We just know we don't want to put down even semi-permanent roots there.
