

Political Parties

1. Noun - Plural
2. Noun
3. Noun - Plural
4. Verb
5. Adverb

Political Parties

Today's two major U.S. _____ Noun - Plural _____ differ in their ideas about how much the _____ Noun _____ should be involved in the economy and in _____ Noun - Plural _____ lives. Democrats tend to _____ Verb _____ that the federal government should be more _____ Adverb _____ involved in regulating the economy.

Democrats tend to think that the federal government should be more directly involved in regulating the economy . Republicans favor less government regulation. Both parties are national parties.

The United States is a two-party system, where two major parties compete in elections. Third parties are parties other than the two major parties, and face many challenges when running in election and getting on the ballot.