Dear Life

Dear life,

When I was younger I always wanted to grow up and be _____ Pronoun, what kid didn't right? I wanted to have a roller coaster in my back yard, a ton of _____ Noun - Plural, eat pizza every day and manage not to _____ Verb a day in my life--this is beginning to sound like the Neverland Ranch. Then time passed and you crushed this dream like a stampede of wild _____ Noun - Plural.

You began to teach me what _____ Determiner was all about and it isn't about _____ Noun or acknowledgement. Life is about leaving an impression. Its about changing the things that you can change, seizing every _____ Noun, and conquering every attainable _____ Noun. You provide time for us to learn from mistakes and alter our _____ Noun.

You encouraged me to be _____ Adjective and competitive through your many sometimes _____ Adverb and poorly timed events. You never hesitated to provide me with enough material to write _____ Proper Noun _____ Proper Noun novel, although, I wish you had granted me with the creative ability to do so--perhaps then I could have had that back yard roller coaster!

Yours

Truly,

Elizabeth
