Running Late

I woke up startled one morning. I looked at the Noun. The time was 8:45, and I should already be at school by then. I was late!

I Verb - Past Tense out of bed as quickly as I could. I ran to the bathroom and splashed Adjective Noun on my face to wash the Noun out of my eyes. I hurried down the Noun stairs to the kitchen, where I gobbled down a Adjective Adjective and a Adjective bowl of Noun. As fast as my Adjective legs would carry me, I raced through the house, brushing my Noun, combing my Noun, and throwing on my Noun.

I was ready to Verb - Base Form. I grabbed my Noun, slipped on my Noun, and reached for my Noun - Plural. They weren't where they should have been on the Noun - Plural. I Adverb dug through by bag. Of course, they were right at the bottom. I Verb - Past Tense out the door, and sped towards the street.

Just then, my neighbour called out to me. "Howdy, First Name of a Person! Where are you off to in such a rush the Adjective Saturday morning?"

Oops!
