Basketball Game

The Dragons vs Knights was the game I was going to see on the weekend. I really liked basketball but never actually played it because my skills were not good. Sometimes I practice but other times I just play for fun. After the school week was over on Friday I went home and got ready for the game. So my mom took me , dropped me off, told me she'd be back later to pick me up. I went inside and saw the Dragons which was my school's team and then the Knights came onto the floor. I watched the first quarter and our team was _____ Verb - Present ends in _____, so at that point I wanted to join the basketball team because I enjoyed the reaction from the crowd and I loved the scoring.
