The Haunted House

It was a _____ Adjective and sweltering night. My sister and I were bored and started to walk around the dark neighborhood lackadaisically. We saw a _____ Adjective house down the road that looked haunted. No one had _____ Verb - Past Participle in that bizarre looking house for generations. We decided to go into the creepy house.

We walked gingerly past the gruesome _____ Noun - Plural. We had an inkling that a despicable person had lived in the house. My older sister was tremulous because of the _____ Adjective statues. My sister was so scared that she _____ Verb - Past Tense over a floor board that had been broken and she got an abrasion. I saw the grimace on her face. I knew that something was amiss. There was a giant sculpture of a _____ Noun with shackles hanging off of it. The sculpture took off on a barking tirade!

We took off running, but the house was so big that time elapsed _____ Adverb and we got lost. Then we had to modify our plan to get out. I abhorred my sister for making me go in the house but I didn't want to be brusque with her. I grabbed her _____ Noun and pivoted around and finally managed to find the _____ Noun. We ran home and never went near that house again.
