Little Sir

Once upon a time, there were two Adjective sisters who wanted a Adjective Noun. One day, their Proper Noun and Proper Noun told them some great news. Their Adjective Noun would soon be here! As the baby boy was Verb - Present ends in ING bigger and bigger in their Mommy's Noun, the two sisters tried to decide on a name. They thought of "Proper Noun" and "Proper Noun". They even considered "Monkey Britches". But none of the names seemed Adjective for their Adjective Noun. Along came their cousin Proper Noun who suggested the name "Proper Noun". "What a perfect name!" thought the sisters! And so, as Mommy's Noun grew Adjective, everyone grew more and more Adjective to meet "Proper Noun"! Finally his birthday was here! And as Mommy, Daddy, Avery and Prestyn looked Adverb at their new Little Sir, they all agreed that Wyatt Adam Boyette was the Adverb name for "Burp"! The End
