The story of the three legged twit

Long ago, _____ Verb - Past Tense time itself was time (so how did we move forward?) there was a great generosity of light, given _____ Preposition or subordinating conjunction thy universe by lord that be, God.

Unto said universe which one should not promptly be _____ Verb - Base Form for, God said unto there let there be _____ Noun, and there was Earth.

He later realized that what he meant to say was let there be girth, you see, God was a dirty old man, in aquatically miss matched in the meat department which he was _____ Proper Noun - Plural and toiled with about since _____ Noun - Plural.
