Bella and Bobby

One Adjective day, Bella the bat was flying Adverb around the forest. She had just come out of the Adjective, Adjective cave and was trying to find her bat Noun Bobby. Bobby was the only friend that Bella had. This is because all of the other animals in the Noun thought that Bella and Bobby were Adjective and Adjective looking. Everyone in the forest thought they were Adjective because they Verb - Past Tense around at night and used Adjective to figure out where they were going. Even though all the other animals in the forest didn't like Bobby because they thought he was Adjective, Bella liked him. And even though all the other animals in the forest didn't like Bella because they thought she was Adjective, Bobby liked her. Bella and Bobby would always be friends... because they were Adjective together.
