Besides, sir, we shall not fight our battles alone. There is a just God who presides over the _____ of
_____; and who will raise up _____ to fight our battles for us. The battle, sir, is not to the strong alone; it is to the vigilant, the _____, the _____. Besides, sir, we have no election. If we were base enough to desire it, it is now too late to retire from the contest. There is no _____ but in submission and slavery! Our chains are forged! Their clanking may be heard on the plains of Boston! The war is inevitable and let it come! I repeat it, sir, let it come.

It is in vain, sir, to extenuate the matter. Gentlemen may cry, Peace, Peace but there is no _____. The _____ is actually begun! The next gale that sweeps from the north will bring to our ears the clash of resounding _____! Our brethren are already in the _____! Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, _____ God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me _____!
