

Maia

1. Noun
2. Pronoun
3. Noun
4. Proper Noun
5. Coordinating Conjunction
6. Number
7. Adverb
8. Verb - Past Tense
9. Particle
10. Determiner
11. Preposition Or Subordinating Conjunction
12. Proper Noun
13. Adjective
14. Noun

Maia

Once upon a time there was a Noun named George. Pronoun was a very special Noun because he could poop out gold nuggets. George's owner was named Doug. Doug was actually very evil, and he stole George from the black market in Proper Noun. George didn't like Doug very much because he made George poop out nuggets every day and every hour. Doug was planning to sell the nuggets until he had enough money to buy the most expensive Coordinating conjunction biggest lollipop in the world, which costs $ Number. One day, George was feeling very sore, so he ran away. He Adverb Verb - Past Tense Particle the nearest tree and jumped off. Determiner! Magical pink fairy wings came out of his back and flew him Preposition or subordinating conjunction the ocean to his home in Proper Noun. When George got there, he met a very Adjective lady Noun. George likes when his women are hairy because he likes the soft fur. George introduced himself to the monkey. He found out her name was Bertha. Bertha had the features of a chipmunk that was hit by a train. Bertha asked George if he wanted to go play Crazy 8's. Of course, George excitedly agreed. After a couple of hours, a land shark named Lenny came up to them and asked if he could play. Lenny scared George so much, he got the hiccups. HIC! George was crazily pooping out gold nuggets! Bertha thought this was a little disturbing. Lenny thought this was hilarious. Ever since that day, Bertha and Lenny have called George Winnie-the-Pooh.