Chris Miley mad lib

Once upon A Time there were two Noun - Plural who were best friends they did everything together. Their Names were Sean Ellis Coordinating conjunction Kurt Deihl. One day Proper Noun was Verb - Present Tense along the side-walk and found a Hundred dollar bill lying in the street. When he saw Sean later that day he told him about it Coordinating conjunction Sean Verb - Past Tense "Can I have half of that since were best friends." Kurt said no and was Adjective at Sean for wanting some of the money (I forgot to mention that Kurt was Adjective). So the next day rolls along and they talk to each other again and Sean Verb - Past Tense why Kurt got mad at him for asking for some of the money. He didn't ask knowing that would set him off again but he asked anyway. When Kurt got Adjective at Sean for it he Verb - Past Tense off and Verb - Past Tense into the street for no apparent reason and at the same time Kurt was in the middle of the street a Noun ran Kurt over and Sean ran Preposition or subordinating conjunction hearing the noise and found the hundred dollar bill took it and forgot all about Kurt. So the moral of the story is never be greedy to your friends.

The End.....?
