One day _____ Pronoun was sitting at home when my little sister Morgan came home from _____ Noun practice. She said she saw a kitten on the side _____ Preposition the road. We were looking _____ Preposition a kitten for a while now and couldn't find the right one who would get along with my dog. We _____ Adverb had an aunt that worked at a _____ Noun close to our house. When we _____ Verb - Past Tense her, she said they had two _____ Adjective kittens in the shelter right now _____ Conjunction she _____ Verb - Past Tense them to our house. When my sister saw them she yelled _____ Interjection! She thought they were so cute. There was a _____ Adjective and orange kitten _____ Conjunction a black kitten. We held them both up to my dog and the black she made a low sound like _____ Interjection! She did not like my dog. When we held the other kitten up to our dog _____ Pronoun seemed to like him and looked at him for a while. So we decided to keep the grey and orange kitten and name it Jillian.
