Give Me Liberty Or Give Me Death

MR. _____First Name of a Person_____: No _____Animal_____ thinks more highly than I do of the patriotism, as well as abilities, of the very worthy _____Animal (plural)_____ who have just addressed the House. But different _____Animal_____ often see the same subject in different lights; and, therefore, I hope it will not be thought disrespectful to those _____Animal (plural)_____ if, entertaining as I do, opinions of a character very opposite to theirs, I shall _____Verb - Base Form_____ forth my sentiments freely, and without reserve. This is no time for _____Location_____. The question before the House is one of awful moment to this country. For my own part, I consider it as nothing less than a question of freedom or slavery; and in proportion to the magnitude of the subject ought to be the freedom of the debate. It is only in this way that we can hope to _____Verb - Base Form_____ at _____Location_____, and fulfil the great responsibility which we hold to _____First Name of a Person_____ and our country. Should I keep back my opinions at such a time, through fear of giving offence, I should consider myself as guilty of treason towards my country, and of an act of disloyalty toward the majesty of _____Location_____, which I revere above all earthly kings.
