Give Me Liberty Or Give Me Death

MR. First Name of a Person: No Animal thinks more highly than I do of the patriotism, as well as abilities, of the very worthy Animal (plural) who have just addressed the House. But different Animal often see the same subject in different lights; and, therefore, I hope it will not be thought disrespectful to those Animal (plural) if, entertaining as I do, opinions of a character very opposite to theirs, I shall Verb - Base Form forth my sentiments freely, and without reserve. This is no time for Location. The question before the House is one of awful moment to this country. For my own part, I consider it as nothing less than a question of freedom or slavery; and in proportion to the magnitude of the subject ought to be the freedom of the debate. It is only in this way that we can hope to Verb - Base Form at Location, and fulfil the great responsibility which we hold to First Name of a Person and our country. Should I keep back my opinions at such a time, through fear of giving offence, I should consider myself as guilty of treason towards my country, and of an act of disloyalty toward the majesty of Location, which I revere above all earthly kings.
