

Happy Belated Halloween

1. Adjective
2. First Name Of A Person
3. Adjective
4. Location
5. Adjective
6. Number
7. Name Of Classmate
8. Name Of Classmate
9. Adjective
10. Adjective
11. Adjective
12. Name Of Boy In Class
13. A Favorite Teacher
14. Adjective
15. Name Of Girl In Class
16. Animal
17. Part Of Body
18. Noun - Plural
19. A Famous Person
20. Adjective
21. Name Of A Food
22. Name Of A Drink
23. Adjective

- 24. Adverb
- 25. Kind Of Food
- 26. Adjective
- 27. Number
- 28. Kind Of Candy
- 29. Noun
- 30. Noun

Happy Belated Halloween

Traditionally, Halloween takes place on October 31st. But this year in our _____ Adjective town of Fairfield, Halloween got moved to November 7th because of Hurricane _____ First Name of a Person. And now it looks like Trick-or-Treating may be postponed again until Saturday, November 10th because of another _____ Adjective storm coming from the _____ Location. This has been one _____ Adjective year for Halloween! At least we get to wear our costumes _____ Number times.

Riverfield students like _____ Name of Classmate and _____ Name of Classmate think Halloween is _____ Adjective no matter when it take place! All of 5R is dressed up in _____ Adjective or _____ Adjective costumes. _____ name of boy in class thought about dressing up as his favorite teacher, _____ a favorite teacher, but he decided that was too _____ Adjective. _____ name of girl in class was going to be a _____ Animal, but she couldn't find the right kind of _____ Part of Body. Some classmates decided to go as _____ Noun - Plural, others are dressed up as _____ a famous person. At school, we will all parade around and then head to our _____ Adjective classroom parties where our room parents will stuff us with _____ name of a food and give us too much _____ name of a drink to drink. It will be hard to get schoolwork done after that!

When the sun goes down on Saturday, Trick-or-Treating will begin in our _____ Adjective town. Children in costumes will _____ Adverb travel from house to house in order to ask for _____ kind of food with the question, "Trick or treat?" The big trick this year is going to be keeping enough treats to give out until Saturday.

With

school cancelled for more than a week and many homes without power, it is estimated that Fairfield's

_____ Adjective children ate no fewer than _____ Number pieces of candy a day to pass the time until their beloved TVs and computer games came back on. Thank goodness Fairfield kids can finally put down the _____ kind of candy and pick up pencils to start filling our brains with _____ Noun instead of _____ Noun !