

The Day The Guinea Pigs Got LooseI was probably nine years old

1. Noun
2. Adverb
3. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
4. Noun
5. Adjective
6. Adjective
7. Interjection
8. Verb - Base Form
9. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
10. Noun
11. Verb - Base Form
12. Adverb
13. Adjective
14. Noun

The Day The Guinea Pigs Got Loose I was probably nine years old

I was probably nine years old with my _____ Noun and I were _____ Adverb _____ Verb - Present ends in ING the guinea pig _____ Noun with the _____ Adjective garden hose on the side of our house. It was a _____ Adjective, sunny day. The pigs were in a tote with no lid so they could breathe and we weren't paying attention to them. Suddenly we heard something go _____ Interjection and we turned around just in time to see them _____ Verb - Base Form away into the yard. Me and my sister were frantically _____ Verb - Present ends in ING for our lost pigs. Ten minutes later we spotted them in a large _____ Noun and went to get them out, but it was really hard. We had to _____ Verb - Base Form up on them and then _____ Adverb grab their _____ Adjective bodies! As they squealed and kicked we tried to get them back in the tote. After that we kept a closer eye on the tote and held them more carefully. After that, we swore to never, ever tell _____ Noun.;)