Pikes Place

Over the summer, I went to Pikes Place in Seattle, Washington. There were hundreds of small booths that sold everything from beautiful art, _____ Noun _____, and _____ Noun _____ to things like beef jerky. We _____ Verb - _____ Past Tense _____ to the very first Starbucks made in Seattle that is located in Pikes Place. I _____ Adverb _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ down a bright alleyway, that was so coated with bubble gum that you couldn't see the black wall behind it.

While shopping I purchased a _____ Adjective _____ ring, a very _____ Adjective _____ picture, and some _____ Adjective _____ beef jerky. After we had finished shopping it was finally time to ride the ferris wheel that was located on the piers. I was so excited that I _____ Adverb _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ the whole way there. With my camera I took lots of _____ Adjective _____ pictures, while riding up the side of the very tall _____ Noun _____ Noun _____. The view from the top of the ferris wheel was amazing. _____ Interjection _____ Interjection _____ Interjection _____! It was so beautiful up there that I was filled with sadness as soon as we had to exit the ferris wheel cart.

After shopping at a few more stands, it was finally time to go home. It had been a great day, and I ended up having lots of fun. And someday I hope that I can go back.
