The State Cross-Country Meet

Adjective
Verb - Past Tense
Noun - Plural
Noun
Adverb
Adverb
Adverb
Adverb
Verb - Past Tense
Noun
Interjection
Noun
Verh - Past Tense
Adjective
Adjective
Verb - Past Tense

The State Cross-Country Meet

It was a	Adjective	day and every	thing outside	e was soggy	. We all	Verb - Past Tei	at at	camp shivering, des	perately try	ing to keep fro	m getting we	t. There we	re Noun -	Plural (of people of	everywhere.
The weather s	lowly clear	ed up, just in ti	me for the cr	oss-country	races to star	t. We streto	ched as a _	Noun
Adverb	waiting f	or our turn to 1	race. Finally,	the annound	cer called us	to the start	line. We	took our places on the line, an	ndAdver	b waited	for the starter	r to begin. V	While we wen	e waiting S	Sarah and	I
Adverb	went ove	r our plan to u	se our pack ru	unning skill	s to get the h	ighest tean	n score. N	ot long after, the starter can	ne out and _	Adverb	_ explained th	ne rules. The	en the starter	Verb - I	Past Tense	his megaphone ar	nd shouted i	n it the two wo	ords I had bee	en waiting to	o hear all day	, ready, se	t, and then	the Noun	_ went off a	nd the race wa	s started. Sara	ah and I got	out hard and	d soon enou	igh we we	ere in the lead pack, passing	people one	by one on my	signal. "	Interjection	, there's	Noun	everyw	here!" I Verb - Past T	ense . W	e made our wa	ay up and dov	wn the	Adjective	hills and th	hrough the)
Adjective	course,	and when we l	hit the mark v	where there	was only abo	out 400m le	eft we	Verb - Past
Tense . I cr	ossed the fi	nish line in 8th	n place, and w	ve took 3rd	as a team at	the state cro	oss-countr	y meet.

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.