State XC

Last year for 7th grade I ran XC because I thought it would be a _____ Adjective experience. Our team was such amazing runners that we ran state. It was a bright _____ Adjective Saturday afternoon. The wind was _____ Verb - Present Tense in my face, it was about 70-80 degrees outside. This was also my first year running cross. _____ Adverb I got in the top 50 runners, there were about 100-150 runners there that day. Not the all the runners on my team went to state, only the people that wanted to pay $5 and have a good time _____ Verb - Present Tense.

My _____ Noun was so proud of how _____ Verb - Past Tense we ran that he took us to a restaurant so we could eat and talk with my fellow _____ Noun. After we were done we took everyone's _____ Adjective Sarsaparilla bottles and acted like we were _____ Adjective. That night I could not stop thinking on how good our team did. The next morning I asked my friend _____ Proper Noun " _____ Interjection! Do you want to go for a jog around town".
