A little bit about Monica

Sooo, a little history about me. My Alaskan Noun started two days after Christmas when I landed in Bethel as a travel nurse in 1997. Just coming from the USVI, I was quite Adjective! I met my husband Heath with the first month of living in Bethel and have been married for almost ten years. We have two Adjective daughters, Savannah is eight and Ella is five. The cost of Verb - Present Tense in Bethel is Adjective, so we moved to Palmer in 2007, and am Verb - Past Participle with my life.

Some Noun - Plural facts about me... I was a hairdresser for many years. I have won the Florida state lottery. I have a brother Jesse that works in the movie business and Noun - Plural in Los Angels. In my Noun - Plural years I lived in Tombstone Arizona, northern Idaho, but spent my teenage years as a Florida girl from Tampa.

So now I spend my days Adverb very part time, volunteering extra hours fundraising for our small school, the March of Dimes, and most recently Blessings in a Backpack. I love the satisfaction I get from Verb - Present Tense others.

I to to cook, almost as much as I love to go out to dine. I just returned from Key West Noun and was comfortably Adjective with ordering on this trip and tasted some mighty Adjective seafood including Hogfish, Grouper, Stone Crab, Blue crab, and also gator tail! I also tried the world famous key lime pie on a stick which was dipped in dark chocolate, it lived up to its popularity for sure.

Summer, well it just doesn't get Adverb enough in Alaska for this Florida-girl-at-heart so I usually head out of state to seek the Noun sand and the Noun ocean I can find with my two Noun - girls!

Well that about sums up my life and on this last trip that my new goal is to add Pronoun of what makes me happy.
