Field Trip

One Adjective evening in my 6th grade year, our class took a field trip! We rode a Adjective, Adjective Noun to a ski resort. Once we arrived, we saw that the place was packed with many other schools! We Adverb got our skis and took lessons. I tumbled a lot of times into the freezing snow, but I never thought my problems would come on the ski LIFT!

I waited Adverb in the ski lift line with my friend, McKayla, who was riding it with me. Our turn finally arrived as the squeaky chair rounded the corner. McKayla and I were Verb - Present ends in ING to the block when our skis touched and got caught! We were trying to regain balance when the chair came and Verb - Past Tense us away! Our fluffy Noun had gotten tangled on the chair as it pushed us under it and Verb - Past Tense us into the icy snow. Interjection Interjection!

To add more to our humiliation, the guy running the lift had to stop it and come into the snow! Everyone in the huge line was laughing so hard! McKayla and I were also laughing as the unshaven Noun - Person angrily put our skis back on and hoisted us back onto the lift. What an Adjective way to start the trip!
