A Day With Grace

Welcome to the English classroom. Zoom in on a girl sitting at her desk. She has brown hair. It is sometimes from not being brushed or in a braid going down her back. One thing you will notice about her is that she always smiling. But now lets rewind to the morning. She will in with her, gym bag,, etc. Then she will sit down and announce to the advisory that she has, yet again, not done her This is her routine almost every morning. Then shortly after she will ask someone to help her with the uncompleted work. But lets go back to the present. The girl is her attention to the teacher at the front of the room.
Now the girl is rubbing the water color from her leg or drawing on face. When class i done she will get up, pack her things and go to her next class her locker there are Noun - Plural shoved onto the top shelf and Noun - Plural Adverb thrown around. But somehow she always finds her things. To this girl must be hard, she will walk around drifting from class to class until sports and then home. Where she apparently cannot finish homework.
