Bowie High School Dance IV

It is the _____ Noun of year again when everyone is getting _____ Verb - Past Participle for the Holidays. With only _____ Number more weeks until Christmas break, and thanksgiving right around the _____ Noun it is _____ Adjective to not get warm fuzzy feelings. Before James Bowie High School _____ Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present on christmas break though, something _____ Adjective for the Dance IV students is going to happen. This will be the _____ Noun last time to _____ Verb in the annual winter show directed by Mrs. Dawson and Ms. Bennett. Leading up to the show the _____ Noun - Plural are going need to _____ Verb their russians, leaps, pirouettes, reverse leaps, and performance skills in order to do their best. They have to remember that a _____ Adjective leap is a leap in second position turned out, and that the leading leg developes while the following leg brushes up through tendu and into a battement. Or that when perfecting a _____ Noun you must spot, pull your posse up, and keep your supporting leg straight. Finally, and possibly the most important part is that each _____ Noun _____ Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present the dance with their _____ Adjective style. No one wants to _____ Verb a dance when the _____ Noun - Plural appear to not be having a good time. Hopefully these pointers help, and best of luck at the show!
