Frazier Christmas Edition

Greetings [last _____last name_____] family,

We want to [verb] you a(n) [adjective] Christmas and a(n) [adjective] New Year! It's time for our annual end-of-the-year newsletter, which we know you are [adverb] anticipating! Here are some of the exciting [plural noun] we have experienced this [time period]! January brought a good friend and Seamus, the [superlative][pet] in the world. Having him here made our little [noun] complete! January also brought 22 feet of [noun], which took some getting used to! In March, we rode the [form of transportation] down to Tokyo with our [noun], Devon. While there, we [verb ending with -ed] the city and attended the MLB exposition game, where the [baseball team ] stomped on the [baseball team]. Over the summer, we had [number] guests come to visit, including Ben's [ relative]; Kari's old roommate, [girl's name]; and various friends from [city], NC. Autumn in [foreign city] has been lovely, and we've [verb ending in -ed] exploring the forests and lakes. We plan to [verb] back to the states for about two months next summer, and hope to [verb] many of you while we are there! Until then, we wish you [abstract noun] and [abstract noun] this Christmas and for the upcoming [time period].

Love,

Ben and Kari, your [adjective] [relation to you]
